“An Evening Parade at the Marine Barracks in Washington, D.C.”

Americans from every walk of life have fought to preserve the freedom of the United States. Patriotism is proudly displayed in the many Washington, D.C. Landmarks and Memorials that pay tribute to those who served her proudly. Experience a patriotic tradition with an “Evening Parade,” a salute by the United States Marines. This Marine tradition is considered the most dramatic military celebration in the world. The present-day Evening Parade was first conducted in 1957 and features the President’s Own United States Marine Band. Visit the Marine Corp Memorial and enjoy dinner at the Fort Myer Officers Club.
