“The Blue Ridge Folklife Festival”

$90.00

Beautiful “Fall Foliage” alive in color is the backdrop for a day of fun and excitement at the 38th Annual Blue Ridge Folklife Festival. Held on the campus of Ferrum College in beautiful Southwestern Virginia; the festival brings together musicians, moonshiners, craftspeople, cooks, hot rodders, horse handlers, folk artists and dozens of artisans in a celebration of Blue Ridge heritage. Continuous music from three separate stages include gospel, blues, country, lots of picking and everything in between! Antique cars and crafts, bluegrass and country cooking at its best, make this festival a “One of a Kind Celebration!”

Tour Departs: 6:00, 6:30 & 7:00 AM

Returns: 7:00, 7:30 & 8:00 PM <http://www.blueridgeinstitute.org/festivals.htm>
