“Les Misérables” at the Kennedy Center

Cameron Mackintosh presents the new 25th anniversary production of Boublil & Schönberg's legendary musical, Les Misérables! After a quarter century of breaking box office records and wowing audiences, Les Mis returns to the same Kennedy Center stage that launched its North American success 25 years ago. Glorious new staging, spectacular scenery and memorable songs such as “On My Own,” “I Dreamed a Dream,” “Bring Him Home,” and “Do You Hear the People Sing?” tell the epic and uplifting story about the survival of the human spirit. A buffet lunch is included before the performance.

Tour Departs: 8:00, 8:30 & 9:00 AM
