“White Christmas” at the Riverside Theatre

Two WWII Army buddies who team up to form a night club act, audition two sisters who persuade them to travel to Vermont for the holidays. Once there, they discover the Inn, run by their former commanding officer, is about to go bankrupt. Using their wits, they arrange a reunion of comrades at the Inn on Christmas Eve. Snow miraculously falls and the Inn is saved! Irving Berlin standards include . . . Count Your Blessings Instead of Sheep, Blue Skies, How Deep Is the Ocean, I've Got My Love to Keep Me Warm, and the memorable title song itself. A scrumptious meal precedes this entertaining production.
