“Governor’s Mansion, Historic Hotels & the Gardens”

Tour Richmond’s Governor’s Mansion, beautifully decorated for the holiday season. Located on the grounds of Capitol Square, it’s the oldest continuously-occupied governor’s home in the country (1814). Enjoy lunch at the just opened and newly remodeled Richmond landmark . . . Residence at the John Marshall. Next, bring your cameras for a “Christmas Tree” photo stop at The Hotel Jefferson, another Richmond landmark. End your evening with a behind the scenes tour of the Lewis Ginter Botanical Gardens. Decorated throughout, the Garden Fest of Lights holiday display is incredible!

Tour Departs: 10:30, 11:00 & 11:30 AM – Note Time Changes
Returns: 7:30, 8:00 & 8:30 PM
