“La Cage aux Folles”
at the Kennedy Center-Washington DC
Saturday - February 11th, 2012

The Kennedy Center which opened in 1971, is both our National Performing Arts Center and memorial to John F. Kennedy. Set on 17 acres overlooking the Potomac, this striking $73 million facility, designed by noted architect Edward Durell Stone, houses an opera house, concert hall, two stage theaters, theater lab, and film theater. Combine the Kennedy Center’s elegant atmosphere with a wonderful Broadway musical and you have the ingredients for a fantastic afternoon of entertainment!

Once arriving in Washington enjoy a buffet lunch at the Vantage Point Rooftop Restaurant. Located on the top floor of the Holiday Inn Rosslyn, Vantage Point’s large panoramic windows offer outstanding views of the city.

Today’s Performance . . . “La Cage aux Folles”

Winner of three Tony Awards, including Best Musical Revival, this hilarious new production of La Cage aux Folles was on the most "Top 10" lists of any musical in 2010! Now La Cage starring George Hamilton and Christopher Sieber is bringing you Jerry Herman and Harvey Fierstein's tuneful and touching tale of one family's struggle to stay together... stay fabulous... and above all else, stay true to themselves! La Cage tells the story of Georges (Hamilton), the owner of a glitzy nightclub in lovely Saint-Tropez, and his partner Albin (Sieber), who moonlights as the glamorous chanteuse Zaza. When Georges' son brings his fiancée's conservative parents home to meet the flashy pair, the bonds of family are put to the test as the feather boas fly! With a glorious score of hummable melodies and a dynamite cast featuring the "notorious and dangerous Cagelles," La Cage is an indisputable musical comedy classic... and this extraordinary new version shows you why!
