“Anything Goes” at the Riverside Theatre

Anything Goes comes to the stage of the popular Riverside Theatre in Fredericksburg for another great Riverside revue! The convenience and accessibility of this theatre is only surpassed by the excellent quality of its shows time after time. The warmth and caring of its staff carry over into their productions. Meet the actors up close and personal as they serve your plated lunch with choice of entrees and desserts. No need to even leave your table as you watch the show from the same place. This Cole Porter musical brings you the traditions of musical theatre that you love - great story, music, dancing and comedy!
