A “Touch of Class” by SignaTours
 Farewell to “Joseph” in the “Dutch Country”
 May 5 -6, 2011

Lancaster, Pennsylvania is synonymous with the Amish and the picturesque landscape of their manicured farmlands. Rolling fields of corn and wheat, horse and buggies dotting the small country byways and family homesteads, paint a picture in time that has remained unchanged for decades. A biblical lifestyle, the Amish, manifest life in a belief system reflecting humility, modesty, obedience, equality and simplicity. This is quite evident in their simple style of dress, mode of transportation and a lifestyle that does not include any of the modern day comforts . . . air conditioning, television, computers etc.

Because of its relationship with the Amish, the “Dutch Country” is well known for its furniture making, crafts shops and Farmers Markets. Fresh produce, meats, cheeses, dairy and just baked breads and confectionary goods are sold fresh off the shelves. If this isn’t enough to whet your appetite, Lancaster is the ultimate place for “Smorgasbords.” Quality home-cooked meals, made from the freshest of ingredients, keep visitors coming back year after year.

I bet you didn’t know this, but there are more than a dozen theatres in Lancaster, showcasing a variety of genre to include musicals, drama, spiritual and comedy. There are also a number of excellent dinner theatres. One theatre that stands alone is Sight & Sound’s Millennium Theatre, the world’s largest Christian Theatre! More than 2000 seats combined with special effects, state of the art lighting and special animatronics, make this a must-see experience on every visit. This particular tour features . . . “Joseph,” an extraordinary Biblical character, best parallel to the life of Jesus. Joseph’s story of forgiveness and integrity has made this Bible story a timeless truth, inspiring generations of men and women to walk uprightly in the midst of great temptation. Experience a cast of 45 professionals, dozens of live animals and amazing dream sequences, one of which includes Joseph in his colorful coat “flying” over the audience. Larger-than-life staging includes a spectacular Egyptian palace scene spanning 300 feet and wrapping around three sides of the audience. You’ll leave this brilliant performance, energized by the character of Joseph, renewed in their faith, and inspired to dream big for God’s glory! Don’t miss your last chance to see Joseph!

Come join us on a wonderful Spring trip to the Dutch Country! You’ll be so glad you did.
